

OFFICE OF THE CHANCELLOR
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA 90024

March 24, 1969

Mr. Joe Faust
59 Dudley Avenue
Venice, California 90291

Dear Mr. Faust:

We are pleased to invite you, as a former Dykstra Scholarship winner, to be our guest at a dinner in celebration of UCLA's Golden Anniversary to take place on the evening of Saturday, May 24, 1969, at the Century Plaza Hotel. The gala will culminate a week-long series of special events planned in honor of UCLA's 50th anniversary, reflecting our many areas of academic and cultural achievement and including the dedication of Ralph Bunche Hall and the inauguration of Charles F. Young as chancellor of UCLA.

As you know, UCLA was founded on May 23, 1919. In just half a century, it has grown from a "southern branch" teachers college to one of the top twelve universities in the country. For this reason, educators as well as alumni and friends hail this 50th anniversary as a milestone in the annals of higher education. Your presence and that of others to be honored will give further recognition to what we believe are UCLA's far-reaching accomplishments and will, I hope, assist in our striving to make it a truly great university.

The evening's events will include no-host cocktails at 6 p. m., dinner at 7 p. m., and the 50th anniversary show and alumni awards presentation beginning at 8:30 p. m. Please join us in celebrating this historic occasion. We would appreciate your returning the enclosed card and envelope by not later than April 15.

Sincerely,

Paul O. Proehl

Paul O. Proehl

Vice Chancellor
